

Resume – Justin Brewer

Email – jwbrew01@louisville.edu

Phone – (859) 621-8678

Address – 800 S 4th Street, APT 2102, Louisville, KY 40203

Education

2007—present University of Louisville’s Brandeis School of Law

- Wrote “The Downfall of Riparianism: A Comparison of Tennessee and Kentucky in Water Pumping Permits”, published in October in the Journal of Animal and Environmental Law
- Scheduled to graduate May 8th, 2010 with honors
- Senior Articles Editor for the Journal of Animal and Environmental Law (JAEL)
- Obtained a GPA of 3.208, placing me in the top 25% of my class
- Tutored for Civil Procedure II
- Worked with River Fields, Inc. to fulfill my public service requirement. Fulfilled the requirement by writing a memo concerning the available causes of action for damage to one of their conservation easements.
- Director of Environmental Law for the Environmental Law and Land Use Society (ELLUS)

2001-2006 University of Kentucky; Lexington, KY

- B.A., English
- Minor in Computer Science

1997-2001 West Jessamine High School; Nicholasville, KY

- Due to my GPA of 3.76 and my ACT score of 30, I received a KEES scholarship of $1000 per semester for my first two semesters of college

Experience

Summer 2008, 2009, 2010 Offices of Mark Hall

- Intern
  - Filed various documents with the court
  - Wrote several memos, both fact and law based
  - Adapted many forms to fit case files
  - Summarized and organized discovery for a capital murder case
  - Did the bulk of the paperwork for a few uncontested divorces

2003-2003 Southeastern Data Cooperative; Atlanta, GA

- Intern
  - Traveled to two different electric cooperatives and assisted in the process of easing them through various billing problems
  - Was asked to help the CEO’s secretary, who was manually copying postage billings. Found a way to automate the process given her data and methods.
  - Was consistently ahead of schedule, completing assigned tasks far ahead of schedule.
  - Learned a great deal about databases, spreadsheets, and the business world

1999-2007 Kroger; Lexington, KY

- 1999-2001 Front End Clerk
  - Began as a bagger and due to attendance and work performance was trained as a cashier
- 2001-2007 Meat Department Clerk
  - Worked 40 hours a week while attending college
  - Learned valuable people and customer service skills